

ILSSA meeting minutes, 3/24

--Thanks to MK for a huge success with the bakesale!

--Megan brings in The Galley, discusses possibility of reviving it. Once a semester? Should we make it online? There is a general consensus that if we do it, we should make it somewhat of a creative forum. Invite everyone SILS-related to submit, provide bulletins on staff talks and other extras that aren't covered on SILS homepage, Wiki, or in other ILSSA material. No set plan of action yet, much more discussion will be required.

3 events next week:

- 1) Tuesday, Serials Acquisition joint panel with SLA
- 2) Wednesday, people from Novelist, talking about careers in private database company
- 3) Thursday, SILS-Alumni week reception, 5-6 PM, place TBA.

--Megan to reserve space for reception

--Cassidy is handling food for all three events.

--Everyone—come up with questions for Novelist people and SLA event panelists, send questions to Megan.

Booksale: everyone who wants to should sign up to work at the SCALA booksale (starts Tuesday). This is not mandatory, and we may decide not to demand money from SCALA for our efforts; do it if you want to.

Café press issue—Megan will take down the logo that's currently on their website, as we're not allowed to use it. New logo pending (after logo contest?)

Meredith Rendall would like to become the GPSF senator for SILS, join ILSSA. Cassidy will possibly step down as VP because of her numerous other duties. (Cassidy? Anything to update us about?) Should we include The Galley as part of Meredith's duties if she takes over?

Spring Picnic—tentatively, April 28th (a Friday), around 5-8 PM. Jim Ruth has volunteered his house. Josiah to lead planning committee (including Betsy, Cassidy, and possible outside volunteers). Megan will find out how ILSSA handled the picnic last year.

Durham Bulls game in May—date TBA. Betsy will check with SAFO to see how to handle finances.

Next meeting: tentatively next Friday, time TBA.
