COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course, we will cover the history and practice of art and visual resources librarianship/curatorship, with an emphasis on administration, collection development, copyright practices, digital resource management, instruction, and public services. A primary goal of the course is to help prepare students for careers in art librarianship, visual resources, and other areas of the field related to visual and art information.

COURSE INSTRUCTORS

JJ Bauer (Visual Resources Curator, UNC Department of Art) My office hours will be by appointment and can be made by e-mail. You are always welcome to stop by the Visual Resources Library at any time as well. The VRL telephone number is 962-3034. My email is jbauer@email.unc.edu.

Alice Whiteside (Head, Sloane Art Library, UNC Libraries) My office hours will be by appointment and can be made by e-mail. You are also welcome to stop by the Sloane Art Library. My office phone number is (919) 962-1061, and my email is awhitesi@email.unc.edu.

PARTICIPATION

Students will be expected to actively engage in discussions of assigned readings/materials and with guests during classes and field trips. Come to class prepared to discuss the required readings/materials for review for the course. For all readings, try to identify the author (who are they, what is their affiliation, background, etc.). Come to class prepared to pose questions or offer insights about the readings and other assigned material. In anticipation of guests, please prepare questions for them in advance as there will be ample time available for free discussion.

READINGS & OTHER ASSIGNED MATERIAL (SEE COURSE CALENDAR BELOW)

Come to class prepared to discuss the required readings, assigned videos, and other materials assigned for you to review. Items listed under “further reading” are optional. Most reserve readings will be located on E-Reserve, along with additional material on physical reserve at the Sloane Art Library. Call numbers for “Reference” and “permanent Reserve” items, as well as URLs for free online publications and videos may not be listed in the reserves listing for this course, so locations are provided in the readings list below. Recent issues of hard copy journals such as Art Documentation and Art Libraries Journal, Visual Resources and VRA Bulletin are located in SILS and most are available online through the libraries’ website as well. You are encouraged to browse these publications to get exposure to current issues in the field.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

North Carolina features many excellent cultural institutions, including UNC’s own Ackland Art Museum, Duke’s Nasher Art Museum, and the North Carolina Museum of Art in Raleigh. We encourage you to take some time to visit area museums and related library and special collections.

If you are seriously considering a career in an art/visual information field, we recommend that you get involved with relevant professional organizations such as ARLIS/SE, ARLIS/NA, VRA and/or ACRL Arts. ArLiSNAP is a great resource for students and new professionals arlisnap.arlisna.org, in addition to the ARLIS/NA website arlisna.org and ARLIS-L listserv and the VRA website www.vra.org and listserv.

Additionally, the SILS student organization AMLISS (Art and Museum Library and Information Student Society) hosts events, field trips, and shares useful information about careers in the field: heellife.unc.edu/organization/amliiss/

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

(1) Short Paper (20%): One short (8 page) paper on a topic of your choice related to the course. You may decide to use this assignment to explore a topic that you may or may not select for the final paper or final project. If you do decide to stick with the same topic, you should be certain to have enough material available for the long paper or project. Short papers will be due February 16th by 5pm.

(2) Long Paper OR Project (55%): One long paper (16-20 pages), including a literature review, on a topic of your choice that is related to material covered in the course. In addition to a literature review, you may consider using any of the following methods to research your topic: case study analysis, short user survey, interviews or oral histories, rapid ethnography, usability analysis, or historical analysis. Instead of a paper, you may decide to do a project. Some examples of projects include: online tutorials or other type of instructional material (design and content), physical space assessment and planning, database design, digital collections, etc. A review of the journals Art Documentation, Art Libraries Journal, Visual Resources, the VRA Bulletin and past SILS Master's papers may help you develop ideas for papers and projects.

Submit your paper or project abstract (500-word maximum) by March 23rd by 5pm. Include in your abstract a brief description of the method(s) you will use (see above).

Final projects and papers will be due April 27 by 5pm.

(3) Tiny Talks (10%): Each student will deliver a 5-minute presentation on an art reference resource or digital art history project that has not already been covered in class. These presentations will take place in class on March 27 & 29. Additional guidelines for this assignment will be provided.

(4) Lightning Talks (15%): Long papers and projects will be summarized and presented to the class at the end of the semester (7-10 minutes per student). These presentations will take place in class on April 17, 19, 24, 26. Additional guidelines for this assignment will be provided.

Late and Incomplete Assignments

Assignments may be handed in late without penalty for a legitimate personal reason. The course instructors will be the judges of what is legitimate, such as a serious illness or a family emergency. A missed or incomplete assignment that is not made up will be given a zero. An unexcused late assignment will be penalized one full grade.
